GROESBECK.

Groesbeck, Texas, May 29, 1919.

Yesterday's services throughout the town were excellent indeed. Head-branch Baptist Sunday School put over some thing out of the ordinary in enthusiasm and interest in Sunday School matters. The collection showed that a Sunday School if it state, in proportion to numbers is ranking among the best. The Metokke Department captured the banner with a collection of one dollar and sixty seven cents, the total amount raised was six dollars and twenty two cents. The Sunday Schools of Lone Star, Andrews Chapel and Dennis Chapel were also on the job.

Directly following Sunday School, to the credit of all the pastors in town, all eleven o'clock services at the various churches were dispensed with, every one turned out to the Blackhear High School Baccalaureate Service, delivered by Rev. Moses Smith in the High School auditorium. Such a sermon was preached as was never heard before in Groesbeck upon an occasion of this kind. Rev. Smith was at his best and seemingly tried to go beyond himself. The graduating class seemed to drink in the jeweled expressions coming from this able divine. The auditorium listened with marked attention throughout the discourse and judges from many kind expressions heard after the meeting, they were pleased beyond measure.

At eight o'clock Pastor Pearson preached an excellent sermon after which sacrament was administered and those who were baptized were welcomed into the church. The colored people of Groesbeck are beginning to awaken to a sense of their responsibilities, watch our solid phalanx go up against the many obstacles we are to overcome. A bigger and better Groesbeck is our aim.

Prof. I. K. Edmond and family are visiting in our city.

OKLAHOMA TOWNS.

HON. NICK CHILES, EDITOR OF THE TOPEKA PLAINDEALER, CHARMS THE AUDIENCE WITH MANY WONDERFUL THOUGHTS.

Lawton, Okla., May 29.—Hon. Nick Chiles of Topeka, Kansas, never spoke with more power or eloquence nor with more wisdom than when he spoke at the Beddick Baptist church last Tuesday night. Editor Chiles was escorted to the platform by one of our most worthy and respectable citizens in the person of Prof. E. H. Crossley, principal of the Douglas High school. The choir sang an opening song, "Holy, Holy, Holy." After which the speaker was introduced by Prof. Crossley. A multitude of ardent and eager admirers were there and enjoyed him as he delivered what many believe to have been the wisest and most eloquent and instructive speech ever given in Lawton. For fully an hour and a half, he delivered to the audience in his own way many interesting facts. He surveyed the world through the eyes of the most advanced men of the race, and with a speech beyond that of any other race. The tribute that the Editor paid to our boys in France was a touching one and he spoke on the race pride question which he handled with much skill. Mr. Chiles is to receive all honors as being the only man of this blessed Ethiopian race who had the nerve and moral courage and love for his race enough so as to take upon himself the responsibility of going to Washington, D. C. to have an interview with President Wilson in behalf of his race. He did not go empty handed as many would have done, but he carried with him facts and figures of the mal-treatment not only of the part of the race, but the race as a whole. And most especially those dear boys who in services of Uncle Sam were being mistreated. Mr. Chiles is also president of the Kansas Defence Club for the benefit of the race and to the interest of the soldiers in prison, a contribution of $31.05 was raised for that cause. The editor is welcome to Lawton, at any time. And to be convinced of this the only Editor of the many race papers that go into the many homes in this city, who has graced our town with his presence. Editor Chiles is of the race for the race and among the race. Hon. Nick Chiles is a black man and of color and the most progressive races in the world. Come again Editor Chiles.

Services were well attended at both churches last Sunday. In the afternoon, the U. B. of F. and the S. M. T. held their annual Thanksgiving services at the Bethlehem Baptist church, Rev. Sauls, officiated.

Mrs. M. L. Brookins, the grand lecturer of the O. E. S., made her annual visit to the Chapter in this city last Wednesday 21st inst. after the meeting a dainty repast was served to the order and a number of visiting guests of the city.

Miss Willa Mae Johnson made a pleasure trip to Oklahoma City, Saturday and Sunday visiting her brothers, who are playing ball there this season.

The Galilee Baptist church has begun work on a temporary structure for which to hold their services. Mr. M. Moore and Mrs. Smith, formerly of Temple, Okla., were joined in wedlock last Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride, Rev. Greene officiated.

The Douglas high school held its closing exercises last Friday afternoon at the school. A very delightful time was had. A splendid program was rendered by the children. Miss Simmons is to be complimented on the manner of training she have given to scholars, a number of parents were present. After the exercise a dainty luncheon was served to the visitors by the girls of the school.

We, the patrons and friends of Douglas school are sorry to have our efficient primary teacher, Miss Annie Simmons, leave us. She has done a great work and has made a host of friends. We hope to have her back another year.

Dr. and Mrs. Gathings entertained with a dinner party Saturday in honor of Miss Simmons. Covers were laid for six.

Sunday the party motored to Medicine park, where they tooked.

Mrs. C. Abernathie, Rutledge and Miss Gertrude Abernathie entertained at dinner in honor of their mother.

The following ladies were present: Madams L. L. Houston, Priscilla Scott, Eliza Jones, Callie Cole, Rachel Mosley and E. G. Reese.

On account of inclement weather the entertainment was postponed on Mother's Day. Messrs. Richardson Loving made an enjoyable evening relating happenings of the world's far in the battles of Argonne, Chateau Thierry and many other places where our boys fought so valiant. Those present were Messrs. Alfred Banks, Scott, Williams, and Thompson. Miss Marjorie Reese acted as conductor on a trip from America to Japan. Japanese lanterns were added mystic lights to the beautifully decorated room which represented a Japanese dwelling. The guests were daintily served while sitting on cushions thrown here and there on the floor.
